I thought that was more of what you needed more than attraction info. I wanted to make sure

For reopenings, ideally, we'll be listing the county website to make it "official." Ideally, the specific webpage so a potential visitor wouldn't have to try to figure out how to navigate the website. Case in point, I couldn't find the specific "lifting of restrictions" – admittedly, I'm likely a poster child for computer challenges, but if'n I can't readily find it, it's likely a potential visitor won't be able to directly find it either.

Sorry, I should have included a link.

The County web site is: https://www.hendersoncountync.gov/

The better resource is HCTDA's, https://www.visithendersonvillenc.org/covid-19-information

I am working a list of attraction opening to send.

Thanks,
