From: Asheville Citizen-Times
To: prteam
Subject: Daily Briefing: North Carolina residents face long court waits following US Capitol arrests
Date: Sunday, January 17, 2021 7:09:31 AM

Daily Briefing

YOUR MORNING NEWS ROUND-UP

SUNDAY, JANUARY 17

Access the e-Edition: Exclusive, subscriber-only access to a digital replica of the newspaper.

Protesters on Jan. 6, 2021, in the U.S. Capitol in Washington, D.C.

Long court wait for NC residents following US Capitol arrests

Three are charged with illegally entering the Capitol and violating curfew.

Land near Linville Gorge Wilderness forever protected

Blue Ridge Parkway closes Linville Bridge for repairs

Asheville's Vance Monument may stay: city manager

Madison Cawthorn protesters converge at Hendersonville...

Support your local restaurants and businesses: Buy a gift card and help your community through these challenging times.

RECENT ARTICLES

Visiting Our Past: Minnie Jones recalled MLK Jr. meeting
OPINION

Word from the Smokies: North Carolina Field Station Enhances Park...
OPINION

Asheville Restaurant Week returns; yes, there's takeout

Buncombe sets vaccinations for 65 and older, all health care workers...

Boyle column: Homeless issue worsening downtown?

FOLLOW US

Problem viewing email? View in browser

Unsubscribe • Manage Newsletters • Terms of Service • Privacy Policy/Your California Privacy Rights • Privacy Notice • Do Not Sell My Info/Cookie Policy • Feedback

© 2021 www.citizen-times.com. All rights reserved.
P.O. Box 2090, Asheville, NC 28802