COVID Vaccine wait list with Buncombe County health department
Questions / Comments:
There was a posting on WLOS.com this morning that indicated that a woman who was over 45,000 on the wait list got an appointment this week. I also know of two other individuals who have self-reported to me that their number was over 30,000 and they have gotten appointments already. There are many of us, myself included, who have far lower numbers than these (mine is in the 7000s) who haven't gotten appointments yet, and the online dashboard claims you are making appointments for people with numbers 4000 to 6000. This certainly seems an inequitable way to handle things. Do you have an explanation?
