From: Asheville Citizen-Times
To: prteam
Subject: Daily Briefing: Asheville"s Vance Monument might not be removed: city manager
Date: Saturday, January 16, 2021 6:52:17 AM

Daily Briefing

YOUR MORNING NEWS ROUND-UP

SATURDAY, JANUARY 16

Access the e-Edition: Exclusive, subscriber-only access to a digital replica of the newspaper.

Asheville's Vance Monument may stay: city manager

Asheville's monument to a Confederate government might not come down, the city's first Black city manager told a conservative business group Jan. 15.

Madison Cawthorn protesters converge at Hendersonville...

Asheville cyclists launch company during COVID

Answer Man: Regeneron treatment available?

BCS extends remote learning until February

Support your local restaurants and businesses: Buy a gift card and help your community through these challenging times.

RECENT ARTICLES

Older NC adults seek vaccine help from younger family

Land near Linville Gorge Wilderness forever protected

Buncombe's living wage jumps nearly $2, now $17.30; driven by pandemic

COVID-19: What you need to know Jan. 16 in Asheville, WNC

Asheville Restaurant Week returns; yes, there's takeout

FOLLOW US

Problem viewing email? View in browser

Unsubscribe • Manage Newsletters • Terms of Service • Privacy Policy/Your California Privacy Rights • Privacy Notice • Do Not Sell My Info/Cookie Policy • Feedback

© 2021 www.citizen-times.com. All rights reserved.
P.O. Box 2090, Asheville, NC 28802