First of all congrads on passing GI school. I know each of you need eight hours of teaching before you can obtain your full GI certificate. To help you obtain your eight hours we have decided to hold 2021 SMT classes here at the PD and allow you to teach some of the class so you can obtain your eight hours. What I need you to do ASAP is submit your F12 to the state to obtain your probationary GI certificate.

In the near future I will reach out to each of you and advise you what class or classes you will teach. When we get to that point you will have to go on the justice academy website and pass a pretest for the class or classes you are going to teach. We will also give you the dates of the classes you are going to teach along with the outline.

Please let me know when you receive your probationary GI cert.

Thanks
