I have placed a roll of plastic (4m) bags in the booking room close to the alco sensor bottle for the offices to use when they arrest someone. Please make sure your officers are having the individuals place items in the bags that the detention staff would normally remove from them before they are placed in the holding cell. Also stress that if an arrestee doesn't want to remove an item then we are not to do it ourselves or fight with them about it. Just make sure the detention center staff is aware the person refused to remove the item.

One last thing, if the bags are too small then please let me know and I will order bigger size bags next time.

Thanks
