Mayor, Council and Council Candidates,
Please see responses to a request for information below.
Thank you,
Jaime

Could you please provide the group the following information.

1. When William Hogan was Chief the city paid a consulting group to meet with upper management staff of the Asheville Police Department, some called it a retreat to work out problems and differences with primarily the captains. How much did it cost the City of Asheville to hire the consulting group?
   What year was the consulting group hired?
   On December 9, 2010 a contract was entered with Developmental Associates for $13,200 to provide intensive individualized professional development assessment and planning.

2. The City hired another consulting group (retired Police Chief Harry Dolan and retired Police Chief Willie Williams) a couple of weeks ago to address issues with the Asheville Police Department.
   How much did it cost the City of Asheville to hire the consulting group ?

   Final Amount Unknown – not to exceed $25,000.
