If we decide to do a couple from each team at a time then maybe members of the other patrol teams would step up and fill in the gaps for OT.

Really don't want to work 5 days straight and we cannot afford to be two to three short, let me talk to the team tonight.

Subject: SMT Schedule

Wanted to get your opinions on the in house SMT schedule. Would you guys want for your teams to go as a group, this means your team will have to work five days straight with OT pay, or we can do two or three officers from your team at a time which means you will have to operate the road with two or three short?

Please let me know ASAP what your choice is.

Thanks
