Mr. Mathews,

As I explained, I am only in Asheville for a short time, therefore, the rush to meet with the mayor this week or next.

My communications with government have been repeatedly requested through Sunshine Request, therefore, I am unwilling to give any more details about my request except to say there is nothing the mayor needs to be prepared for except to listen and read for 20 to 30 minutes.

I have met with other government officials over many years and all they required is the general topic of the meeting, which I have provided you.

I can assure you that I will be prepared. I am well-researched and documented and what I have to say is in the mayor's interest.

Afternoons are best for me.

Thank you.

Unfortunately, Mayor Manheimer does not know what this request is in reference to with regard to the Police Department. I am happy to ask her about a meeting opportunity if you are able to provide information about the requested meeting topic.

I'm rescinding my request to meet with the mayor. She's proven my point and it will be reported that she refused to hear from a constituent who tried to bring her attention to official misconduct in her administration.

Good day.
