Subject: Re: Haywood Rd Business/Building contacts

Hi Lynn,

I can assure you that the night shift officers in particular have been expending a lot of time and energy to prevent further tagging especially along Haywood Road. We will continue or to heavily patrol the area and I will add this location to specific sites to check.

Thank you!

For the past week, the Collapseable Studios building has been getting tagged. It's so disheartening to me to watch this happen all over again. Do we have police presence and patrolling on Haywood Road now? Does anyone know how to contact the owner? Can we please encourage the owner to paint over it immediately?
