Subject: Thank you Vijay

Vijay,

I've been meaning to get in touch with you, in fact I have a half-finished email draft saved and I'll send it along at some point. The most important piece of that note was to thank you for the tremendous compliment that you shared with me after the heated September 24 meeting.. The credit you gave me for changing your mind meaningful beyond words. What you said, what you DID tonight was humbling and truly profound.

I understand that you cashed in huge amount of political capital on this issue and you cashed in even more by willingly associating your name within my toxic (and enormously mythological) reputation. I've been tarred and feathered and you gave me a hug. Ya know?
Anyway, that was a very classy thing to do. You (we) are not only right on the math, but we are on the right side of history. Late, but still right. Hopefully the masses will be thrilled enough with a 6-1 victory, you won't receive too much of a backlash, and I do think that once this is heard outside the echo chamber of Asheville, the truth will be unveiled quickly.

Anyway, thanks again-
j
