Exhibitors and Those Tabling for the Bree Newsome Event this Friday evening,Â

We are thankful that you have agreed to table or provide handouts this Friday, September 29 in the lobby outside Ferguson Auditorium for the free event open to the public, "A Conversation with Bree Newsome, Social Activist".Â Refreshments will be provided. I have attached a postcard for you to send to your listserv, friends and neighbors.Â We would be grateful if you would send them something about the events this weekend. I have included two paragraphs below my name that you can copy and paste into an email for that purpose if it would be helpful.Â

Please join us for two exciting evenings this weekend. Â ThisÂ Friday evening, September 29, in the lobby outside Ferguson Auditorium for the free event open to the public, "A Conversation with Bree Newsome, Social Activist".Â Refreshments will be provided.Â The evening with Bree, who is now famous for taking down the confederate flag at the SC State Capital two years ago, Â <http://www.breenewsome.com>Â and your presence will provide valuable information for people in our community, especially our youth, who will use the knowledge gained this weekend to develop their own portraits and stories during the school year. Please come to Ferguson Auditorium on Friday at 4:30 to set up your exhibit so you can be ready by 5pm. Please reply with the answer to this question - will you have a display/banner or handouts?Â We have a good size group of exhibitors (yay!) so some organizations may have to share a table if they are not bringing a display or large banner (which is fine). We will have chairs available as well.Â

Bree's portrait, by Richard Shetterly, will be featured in the exhibit at the YMI. Â Join us Saturday afternoon, September 30 from 4:30-6:30, as we celebrate theÂ portraitÂ unveiling ofÂ North Carolina's own civil rights activist,Â Bree Newsome,Â as she isÂ inducted into theÂ 'Americans Who Tell The Truth'Â collection, joinedÂ by the artistÂ Robert Shetterly,Â for an evening of superb company,Â delectable hors d'oeuvres, entertainment and the opportunityÂ to view the newly acquired, community-ownedÂ 'Americans Who Tell the Truth' Print Library Collection.Â Tickets are available at: Â awtt2017.eventbee.com

Â

Thank you so much!Â Cheryl
