Good morning,

I know I am no longer related to your divisions, but I am just concerned with responses from administration. Please see Brents response when I was concerned about my personal number. If I am in the wrong, then I apologize but this response seems unwarranted. I have reached out to INV and HR and it's all falling of deaf ears it seems.

Demietric,

I will use this information in such a way that prioritizes the needs and mission of this agency. If you don't agree with my decisions in that regard, you may avail yourself of the opportunity to resign. When you don't work here anymore, we will not call you. In fact, I promise that you won't so much as cross my mind ever again.

Thanks,
Brent

Good morning,

For emergency contact, that is understandable but all of our numbers where on the spreadsheet sent out to the office. Administration having our personal number is fine and reasonable. Administration sending our personal contact information to the entire office, I do not understand and had already expressed my uncomfortableness of sharing this information to others without my consent. By providing our numbers to the office, the administration in my opinion, has already used the information by disseminating it for a non-emergency cause.

Thank you,

Demietric,

The contact information will be used for emergency situations and when there is a time sensitive need for contact with an employee for the sake of the office.

Thanks,
Brent

Good afternoon, Brent,

I hope you are doing well. On the 'Hybrid work schedule attachment 2025' in the memo from a few moments ago, our personal cell phone numbers were in that spreadsheet and sent out to the office. To my understanding, which may be incorrect, the email we received from Judy Jefferson on February 5th stated the information that we sent, our personal phone numbers, would only be available at the front desk. With today's email, our personal phone numbers were included, and they are now available to everyone in our office. Additionally, my understanding of having our individual work phone numbers is so that we can be reached by that line specifically and that our personal numbers were to be used in the need of an office emergency.

Going forward, should we expect our personal numbers to be given out in this manner? If so, would it be possible to disclose what the office plans to do with the personal information we are mandated to provide?

Thank you,

RE: Work Schedules

I write today to inform you of changes being made to work schedules at OSA. All of these changes will be effective Monday, March 17.

1. We will be adopting only options 1 through 3 of the current work schedule policy going forward.

The three options will be:

- Five 8 hour days
- Four 8.5 hour days, One 6 hour day
- Four 9 hour days, One 4 hour day

Please let your supervisors know by the end of the week if you plan to make a change to your regular work schedule.

2. All employees with permanent assignments will be in the office regularly everyday unless they are working on site at an audit location or taking leave.

Anyone who elects to give up their permanent assignment in light of this change can hotel going forward. Please let your supervisors know by the end of the week if you will be giving up your permanent assignment.

3. Remote work days will be as follows going forward.

Monday (Information Systems team and Investigations team)
Tuesday (All Financial team employees reporting to Jordan Chippewa)
Wednesday (Week 1: All Financial team employees reporting to Jordan Chippewa, Week 2: All Financial team employees reporting to Ray Whitby)
Thursday (All Financial team employees reporting to Ray Whitby)
Friday (Performance team and Data Analytics team)

The purpose of these changes are to return to the original design of our Raleigh office space as articulated by those who designed it to suit our work flow—To allow our teams to come in to work collaboratively in person to suit the needs of the agency.

4. Send your contact information, including a phone number, for your remote days directly to me as a response to this email if you are not already on the attached list. This is MANDATORY.

Please direct any questions regarding this memo to me.
