I counted 289 April Traffic Stop reports in RMS, and 344 Calls (tstop, crash red, radar) - though 9 of the calls are marked as cancelled. I kept the cancelled calls in the mix because 2 of them linked to an RMS tstop report.

Overall 263 of the 344 calls link up with an RMS tstop report - see last column of tab 'AprilCallsWithNamesXcp'.

And so 263 of the 289 RMS tstop reports directly link to a call - 26 don't.

tab 'AprilRMSstops' has the list of RMS tstop reports.

tab 'AprilCalls WithNamesFull' has Call list including crime prevention (I kept this just in case) tab 'AprilCallsWithNamesXcp' has Call list without crime prevention and is the one you want.

Please make sure to review with all you folks about the importance of accurately completing the Traffic Stop Reports.

There have recently been issues with the "consent" box being checked despite the fact officers have probable cause to conduct a search. If you have PC, then you need to check the PC box.

Additional roll call training will be coming soon as well as a training review of Traffic Stop Reports in Power DMS.

The Lt's were told there has been discussion about implementing random BWC audits of consent searches. I would like to think it won't come to that, but it certainly reinforces the importance of accuracy in those matters.

I'll pass along any new info as I learn it.

Thanks,
Chuck

Residential B&E
Officers were initially dispatched to the listed address in reference to a home invasion. APD communications quickly advised that the information they were receiving was third party information and that the incident happened 30-45 minutes prior to dispatch. Officers arrived and located the victim, who stated that two males broke in to his home, brandished a firearm, and attempted to locate the victim's roommate. The victim stated that he fought both of the intruders off and that his roommate left out the back door of the residence. Officers learned, from the victim's mother, that the victim suffers from schizophrenia. There were no signs of injury to the victim, the roommate could not be reached by cell phone, no signs of forced entry, and the victim reported nothing stolen from the residence. Report completed.

I added traffic stop reports under the traffic section and cleared up any of the lingering comments / highlights.

Do you want me to send it out to the committee since it's already Wednesday along with the policy and google survey? Did Sgt. Tullis want to review any of this?

All,

Adam District is short on Racial Profiling reports this month. Its likely because the electronic submissions aren't working currently and we're filing the reports by hand.

If you stop a vehicle, please be sure to complete a paper report and forward it to Jeanette Sams. I keep copies of all of my reports, I would recommend you do the same.

Thank you for your hard work.

Please remind your officers to complete their traffic stop reports each and every time. I know that we have had problems with the electronic filing by the officer and hand-written reports are being completed and entered by PID. Please make sure that these are being completed and forwarded. Thank you for your assistance.
