- April-Diversity Month "Coming to the Mountains"

- June-Pride Month "Loving Families"

Great for Maggie and Ashley to work together.

I hadn't thought about celebrating Veteran's. Not the same as racial, ethnic and cultural groups.

I would like to celebrate and recognize Native Americans. There is no exhibit. So we will need to do something else.

I'd be interested in writing an accompanying piece that goes deeper than the current articles. Let me think about it over the next couple of days.

I need to check in with James about the exhibits...

Thank you you for following up.

I have no problem working with Maggie, she's wonderful. I will reach out to her about the next few months.

I'm almost complete with my blog about Paige Pearson, we can run both stories if you like.

Kimberlee,

I shared your idea about the exhibits last week during our leadership meeting. There was a positive response. I wanted to follow-up on a few items.

1. I relayed that the idea was to have Ashley feature employees from COA to coincide with the topic of the month. Maggie was mentioned as probably being a good resource. I shared with her the months and proposed topics so she said she was on it.

Ashley are you fine with working with Maggie on this part?

2. There was a question on if you were going to do anything for Veterans in November.

3. There was a question on if you were going to do anything for Native Americans.

4. Chris mentioned he had read this article, and thought it may be a good story to share for Black History month. <http://coablog.ashevillenc.gov/2017/10/asheville-recreation-center-renamed-in-honor-of-montford-midwife/>

Let me know your thoughts-

Thanks,
Jaime
