Subject: Re: Clarification re: Assistant City Attorney Maddux's role in noise complaints

Good afternoon David,

When someone would contact the administrative assistant at Asheville Police Department, who acts as the Noise Ordinance Appeals Board's secretary, Assistant City Attorney John Maddux asked that they be directed to him so that he could explain the noise ordinance appeals board process and the scope of the board's authority prior to their filing a complaint with the board.Â Â Â

Best,
PollyÂ

Good afternoon. I'm seeking some clarification on remarks made by Assistant City Attorney John Maddux at the Jan. 22 Asheville City Council meeting. At that meeting, Maddux stated that all noise complaints went directly to him. Did he mean that he was receiving notice of noise complaints while they were going through the regular process with APD, Noise Appeals, etc. or did he mean that he was overseeing the city's response and enforcement directly?

Thank you for your assistance in clarifying this matter.

Best,

David Forbes
