Hey Lindsay!

This looks really good to me. Many of our PD's also celebrate those National Days and it goes well. I'd like to see the Chief involved in some of these. I'm thinking the Senior Citizens Day maybe he would be cool with doing a Coffee with the Chief at a Nursing Home and he can go around and chat with some of the folks. The people at the nursing homes are usually starving for conversation so they enjoy these visits very much. This all depends on the whole Covid situation, of course. What do you think?
