Very true, but sometimes people in your don't like us. Others love us. It's a 50/50 split, so we just never know. We are there to make their lives easier and to help that PIO shine. We don't want to make it more difficult or take credit for things. That's just us!

Totally. Would you like me to meet you at the Foundry and we can walk a few doors down to Penny Cup (believe they're open even with covid restrictions).

Laura,

Would you and Sandy be amenable to meeting tomorrow around 8:15 for coffee to discuss a few things before tomorrow's 9:00 am start? I know you guys are on California time and 9:00 is already early, so I completely understand if you are unavailable.

Oh this makes me so happy. We were wondering, yes it was a lot and we are trying to process it all now but tomorrow should be good. Thank you for being open and please know we are hear to be a team player, not take over anything. Just assist.

See you soon,

Of course! And if there's anything else that I can provide you that would assist you in your work with us, please let me know. I know today was quite overwhelming and conversation got off track a number of times, but based on my experience with the department that was a different level of honesty than I've ever seen. So believe it or not I think that today was actually a success. I look forward to working with you and moving APD forward.
