Oh this makes me so happy. We were wondering, yes it was a lot and we are trying to process it all now but tomorrow should be good. Thank you for being open and please know we are hear to be a team player, not take over anything. Just assist.

See you soon,

Of course! And if there's anything else that I can provide you that would assist you in your work with us, please let me know. I know today was quite overwhelming and conversation got off track a number of times, but based on my experience with the department that was a different level of honesty than I've ever seen. So believe it or not I think that today was actually a success. I look forward to working with you and moving APD forward.
