Subject: Final Protest Update

All is calm. No protests in downtown. Only incident was a bottle of urine thrown at a Fire truck at Harrah's Cherokee Center.

The Chief has decided to lift the curfew tomorrow. We still think we need the National Guard to transition out of the curfew. They will not be visible.

Hope you all have a good night. As a reminder there is an event with Black leaders scheduled for noon tomorrow starting at the YMI.

Take care and please let us know if you have any protesters at or near your homes.

Thanks

Debra
