Food was considered a necessary item. That means people are allowed to be out in order to get food and bring it back. However from a practical perspective it might not be the safest thing to do right now.

Subject: Question re restaurant carry out

Hey there. I had staff asking tonight whether restaurant carry out was permitted during curfew. The curfew allows businesses to be open but staff was wondering if individuals were allowed to be out to pick up their orders.

I'm sure you have other items on your plate that are much more pressing but wanted to put this in the queue since I was asked. Thank you sir!
