Totally. Would you like me to meet you at the Foundry and we can walk a few doors down to Penny Cup (believe they're open even with covid restrictions).

Laura,

Would you and Sandy be amendable to meeting tomorrow around 8:15 for coffee to discuss a few things before tomorrow's 9:00 am start? I know you guys are on California time and 9:00 is already early, so I completely understand if you are unavailable.

Of course! And if there's anything else that I can provide you that would assist you in your work with us, please let me know. I know today was quite overwhelming and conversation got off track a number of times, but based on my experience with the department that was a different level of honesty than I've ever seen. So believe it or not I think that today was actually a success. I look forward to working with you and moving APD forward.
