Dear Dr. Mullen:

We are delighted you have agreed to participate in a panel highlighting the present during the City of Asheville's Information Sharing and Truth Telling speaker series to be held at the Thomas Wolfe Auditorium in Asheville, North Carolina on June 10, 2021 from 6:00 pm to 8:00 pm. This panel will be one of several panels held during the month of June.

Your panel will feature you, Marcus Harvey, Jorge Redmond, and Rinku Sen. The session and run of show is as follows:

- Open and welcome by the Mayor or Vice Mayor
- Speakers (in order): Rinku Sen, Dr. Dwight Mullen, Marcus Harvey, Jorge Redmond.
- Ms. Sen provides a 20-25 minute talk
- Q & A with Ms. Sen.
- Dr. Mullen, Dr. Harvey and you will present for 10 minutes bringing the local perspective.
- Following the formal presentations, Dr. Darin Waters will moderate a question and answer with the audience as an opportunity for reflections. (will take questions/comments for 15 minutes).
- Dr. Daren Waters, the panel moderator, will then lead the panel in a conversation to address the questions listed below.
- Following the panel discussion, Dr. Waters will take additional questions from the audience.
- Wrap up and closing remarks by the Mayor or Vice Mayor.

Please use the following information to help guide your remarks:

Framing Theme: Understanding the Impact of Policies and Practices that Led to Inequities in Asheville.

Panel Questions to each panel member:

- Based on your experiences or expertise, what are reasonable expectations for us to have as we work through these issues as a local community?
- What is the one thing the city should do within the next six months to make a difference and repair harm?

We also are pleased to offer a small stipend of $500 for your participation. Please follow the instructions on this form to register for payment.

Once again, many thanks for your involvement in the speaker series. We are looking forward to your participation and will keep you updated as planning progresses.

Should you have any questions, please feel free to contact me or Jaime Matthews at (828) 713-3090, or jmatthews@ashevillenc.gov.

Thank you,
Debra
