Hey Kim,Â

Thank you so much for setting up my conversation with Jade, it was great to catch up with him on all the city's sidewalk projects.Â

Bit of a different topic: I'm working on a story about the people charged with felony littering in connection with the Aston Park protests. I understand they went through an appeals process, and saw some info attributed to you in an Asheville Free Press story.Â

I wanted to follow up on this as well. Who led this process? Who issued the letters to the defendants and how many received them? How many appeal hearings were there, for how many people? Is this a common practice in the city?Â

Could I also get a copy of theÂ Administrative Policy on Restricted Access to City Parks?Â
