Subject: Fwd: Requesting comment on Committee to Protect Journalists tweet for Mountain Xpress

Good afternoon,

I received this note from Mountain Xpress asking APD's comment regarding apparent arrests of a couple of journalists at Aston Park on Christmas Day.

My recommendation - no response needed.Â No need to feed the fury.Â Â

Thoughts?

Hello Mr. Davis,

Â
Â

As you may have seen, on Dec. 28 the international nonprofit Committee to Protect Journalists posted on Twitter condemning the actions of the Asheville Police Department toward two reporters for the Asheville Blade. The journalists were arrested on second-degree trespassing charges while covering the removal of a homeless camp and art installation at Aston Park Dec. 25.

Â
Â
Â

"Authorities in #Asheville, NC should drop all charges against @AviBlade reporters Veronica Coit and @matilda_bliss, who were arrested on December 25. We are deeply concerned that @AshevillePolice interfered with their reporting and unnecessarily confiscated Bliss's phone," the tweet read.

Â
Â
Â

I'd like to give the APD a chance to respond prior to my inclusion of the tweet in a newsletter planned for Monday. I'd need comment by 1 p.m. on Jan. 3. Thanks in advance for your help.

Â
Â
Â

Sincerely,

Â

Daniel Walton
