It makes sense. A penny for our partners.

Not sure why it seems so easy in other cities! The sales tax increase will be directed toward the Downtown Nashville Partnership (business improvement district) and target particular transactions - including hotel stays, tickets to sporting events, high-alcohol volume drinks, parking, etc. Funding is expected to go toward improved trash pick-up and more downtown ambassadors that will get specific public safety training. The Nashville Partnership works with Block by Block for ambassadors, and Block by Block also operates a parking circulator for downtown, which is interesting.
