I participated in one of the Tim Love calls today with the topic of homelessness and it was excellent. Emily Ball (CED) and Jen Teague (County) gave a great presentation.

A couple of takeaways that I wanted to share:

- A homeless services work group was formed at the beginning of COVID but they were highly focused on COVID-specific measures (probably not the right group to lean on moving forward)
- Kit and Vic are meeting with Cathy later today to talk about piloting a business improvement district (did you know that? I'm very interested in this, obviously)

Interesting updates from a recent TDA meeting, including suggestions around downtown ambassadors and a Downtown BID, as well as increased tourism projections:
