

The Federal Law Enforcement Training Centers (FLETC),
Leadership Institute presents:

Leading Community Engagement

Before and After the Boston Marathon Bombing

Deputy Superintendent Luis Cruz has been leading efforts to build stronger communities for an entire career. His efforts have brought Boston Police Department national recognition for their efforts and success. These efforts assisted in the immediate investigation following the Boston Marathon Bombing and beyond. Deputy Superintendent Cruz will discuss the importance of police/community involvement and how to succeed.

DEPUTY SUPERINTENDENT LUIS CRUZ

Deputy Superintendent Luis Cruz serves as the Chief of Labor Relations for the Boston Police Department in the Office of Police Commissioner. Luis has over 28 years leading within the Boston Police Department. He is licensed to practice law in the State of Massachusetts and a graduate of the FBI National Academy.
