What has sunrise helped you with?Â
â€œThey helped me start thinking straighter and that helps me understand that I can have a better future than I could ever imagine. I am getting my birth certificate soon which is going to help me. I donâ€™t get sloppy drunk anymore because I am use to staying by myself but now that Iâ€™m back in society I maintain myself a little better.â€ How has living in the Ramada Shelter helped you?Â
â€œIt has helped me to adjust to living in society and has helped my social skills out a lot. â€œÂ lived on his own in a tent up the maintain for years. He told me that it got lonely up there which often times led him to drinking more than normal. He once had two years sobriety and is willing to work towards becoming sober again, especially since heâ€™s back in society!Â
