Hello! I can actually go into the training site and get those certificates myself so that part is totally fine. The other piece I need is the User Agreement signed by you, Randa, and also signed by Sue - a copy is attached here. Let me know if you have questions!

Hey Emily and Randa

Emily- Randa works on the ESH street outreach team and has completed the trainings. She is unable to get the certificates to download for some reason. Will these screenshots work?
