Subject: Very limited access and capacity to check emails while away from the office. Re: Emergency Shelter Operations

I am out of town for Mobilze Recovery 2021 event and a few extra self care days off. I'll then be attending The People's Opioid Summit Oct 5-7th and will return "to the office" Monday Oct 11th. If you have an urgent need during this time, please feel free to reach out to Jacqui Derreberry 828-980-8677 jderreberry@sunriseinasheville.org

While I will be responding to emails as I am able, I plan to delete the vast majority of the emails received during my time away. It's not because you or your email isn't important to me -- it's for my own self-preservation and mental health balance. Through experience, I have found that the mental health and stress-relief benefits of taking a vacation are often obliterated when I return to the office and am faced with an overflowing email inbox on top of the work that is naturally waiting to be picked back up.

Thank you for your understanding!!
