Great and yes, I think so - Jessie and I also talked about maybe having peer university folks help. I think the consolidation will be a pretty heavy lift, but I also think things will be so much easier and better once it's done.

Sounds great that it'll be the same 2 people doing inspections! Can I have a quick conversation with them about what to be looking for, etc.? I can just email them directly if that works for you guys.

Yes. I'm pretty sure Tues and Thurs will be the on-going inspection days. Rachel or Courtney will be there those days to walk around with Jessie. I let everyone know the goal of setting the rooms back up like they were and to downsize their belongings. Do you think it'll be better for additional leadership to be there during the moves? Sounds like maybe yes. Let me see what I can do.

Hi! I'm at the Ramada and Jessie and I are working on room moves to the main building (yay) + the schedule and just trying to figure out how it can all work this week and next. Is there a schedule for leadership staff to be here and can they help with those moves? Definitely a good tie in with inspections since it'll be a great opportunity for folks to downsize a little if they need to + get the rooms they're moving out of cleaned. Just trying to nail down logistics and copying Jessie here too so we'll all be on the same page - thank you!
