Yes! Executive leadership meets tomorrow and will be discussing this. I'd be safe to say that beginning with next week's inspections Sunrise leadership can stay committed throughout the end of March.

Hey y'all, I just wanted to follow up on this - I shared that checklist without any actual info or plan so wanted to make sure we're on the same page before I transition out of doing them.

Would it be helpful for me to talk to your leadership team about what to look for? And we'd already had a notebook going so I'm imagining Jessie you could help figure out how to integrate some kind of tracking of those checklists with that notebook? And last, can we talk about a start date for leadership staff to get these underway, and I'll keep doing them in the meantime?

Thanks!
