Let's just plan not to tape her. I have 4 staff who and myself. I am the director so I can give a little rundown of what we do there if you'd like and then they can do what you need them to do with small snippets of the success stories? will you just let us know what you need ? 9am sounds great for the set-up

Thanks, Ashley. I'd personally be more comfortable not videotaping the front desk woman, given her circumstances. If she decides it's okay then we can do it but I don't want her to feel pressured and unsafe.

Let's plan on starting the first interview at 10am. I'll arrive at 9am to bring in gear, set up lights, camera equipment, etc., so we're ready to roll at 10:00.

Sounds good I'm off at 3pm that day to head to Florida but I'm free before then. I'll make sure the room is available, the front desk peer has not given us a definite yet, she is a little hesitant bc she fleeing from domestic violence and does not want to be seen at all. I explained you wouldn't show her face but I also know and understand her hesitation. Let me know
Thank you

Hi Ashley,

Tuesday the 19th would be great for me. I'm already scheduled for another shoot on the 18th so let's plan your shoot for the 19th. I'll email Emily and Ashley with a heads up. Hopefully that's good for their calendars too.

Is there a period of the day that would be best for everyone's work schedules? I expect that interviews and office b-roll with your staff will take at least two hours. After that I'll shoot for another hour with Emily and Ashley to get generic b-roll. If we also shoot with the woman who works at the Ramada front desk, that'll take another 30-45 minutes. I expect to be there for about three and a half hours total to get all the shots in.

Best,
Dan

Hey! It was Great meeting you, Since I'm out next week and Emily is on vacation the following week will be the only time that I'm available because my husband and family and I are going on vacation on the 19th. So actually I'll be available on Monday the 18th and Tuesday the 19th but hopefully we can set up a time during then. Thank you, we look forward to the video.
