We have clothes and I have a couple regular plates a couple mugs. The only thing I didn't grab was like a regular glass which they do not have in the rooms. See you in a bit

I think if you bring what we talked about before then we'll be in good shape:

"In the room we will have everything but the vase and flowers and the clothes hangers. I can bring some we have the coffee pot and a mug (eastfork lol) also we have paper plates and such that the peers use on a daily basis? Or we can get a regular plate and glass?"

I forget, did you say there are some clothes we could put on the hangers?

I have hangers and the flowers and vase. I also have a coffee maker with a carafe so we can shoot the pouring action. I didn't know if you had a traditional maker or a Keurig.
