As a Senior Consultant with Developmental Associates, I bring a level of expertise with regards to personnel. As part of the ABC Board, I understand the board is responsible for the fiduciary matters of the ABC Control Commission and, therefore, relies heavily on the personnel, specifically, the General Manager and the CFO.

The GM and CFO must run the ten ABC stores ethically with strict adherence to state laws but, at the same time, promote customer service and assure that customers have a friendly, satisfying experience when visiting ABC stores.

My two years of experience working with Developmental Associates will help the ABC Board have an eye towards our personnel.

I also served ten years on the UNC-Asheville Board of Trustees so my understanding and knowledge of board process will also bring a level of expertise to the current board.

Recently, I worked with Durham County to help this agency find their new General Manager for the county's ABC Control Board. I asked Asheville's GM, Mark Combs, to participate in this process with Durham County ABC Board. Mark was kind enough to spend time with me touring the ABC administrative office and explaining how both the state ABC Control Commission as well as the
