Jocelyn and Delia - thank you for trying to assist Ms. Hubbell. I think at this point youâ€™ve done all you can do and further correspondence may be unproductive. Again, thanks for your efforts.Â

You see... THIS is what i've been getting for 7 years, my kid is being abused, cps won't investigate and I am disabled and the law is messed up.. I have talked to my kid ONCE via video chat for 10 mins since 7-24-2022Â His birthday is 9-24-2022... my kid threatened to commit suicide two days after his dad gave copestone pediatric psychiatric hospital false information and he called it a temper tantrum and is still refusing to get him the neuropsych exam that has been recommended since he was 3, and tells my kid it's bad to have ADD and it's bad to have autism, and you don't have ADD you're mom is manipulating you into thinking or you're learning that behavior from her... yet my son who went into kindergarten reading at the 4th grade level has not been allowed to progress at all and now he's in 4th grade, he's gone severely backwards in his math abilities and I have proof of medical neglect going back to 2014!!!! My kid won't even talk know because he knows just like the guy at the family justice center told us in Buncombe county whoever has the money gets the kid... even though it's quite obvious nothing is done for my kid there unless it's convenientÂ for his dad, who actually has called my kid a nuisance and a pain in his ass etc.... WE NEED HELP!!!!!!

He's missing out on huge opportunities, goes to school at the only school i'm aware of in Buncombe county that has 0 AIG program, oh this year he was told that since he's turning double digits 10, he doesn't get birthday parties anymore... He had ONE last year so his dad could let his new girlfriend plan it... and also is telling my son that Joy's not really your mom but she kind of is... NO, I'm his mom and I am not the abuser... Please help us, I need to see my baby, i'm sick of being harassed and threatened and so is he, he just won't tell anyone anymore.
Dawn Hubbell 828-231-8871 or 828-317-3506

my son and I are both scared of him as we've tried for years now to get help.. I am on disability but give this kid everything he wants and more.. He's been accepted and can get a full ride scholarship until he's 18 to study music from a referral made on his behalf to the academy of music...Â Please don't let this shiny magical unicorn get beat up until he turns into one of the other plain dusty old horses.Â

Good morning,

Â

I apologize in the delay in getting back to you, Iâ€™ve ben out of the office due to sickness the past few days.

Â

Currently, our current fee for a consultation is $250 and for legal representation the attorney does ask for a retainer deposit. The retainer deposit varies on the case. We can not do free legal representation, but I would be happy to provide other law firmâ€™s contact information for you to reach out to on your continued research.Â I can not confirm they would be able to take your case, you are welcome to contact them for more information.

Â

Hi jocylyn,

I am trying to reach out to see if you have heard from esther about this situation? normally i would be able to handle the $250 consultation but I;ve had a series of financial situations that are making that more difficult than usual. I do really need to speak with the lawyers though, I tried to reach back out to you a couple of times, as well as the mayor's office and Brownie's office. Some things are escalatingÂ with my son and his dad's refusal to let me communicate with my child at all.Â I also am in fear of doing anything without lawyers advice at this point.Â Â

Dawn Hubbell 828-231=8871 or 828-317-3506 the second number i think gets a little better reception at my house.

and this is a copy of the second set of papers i was served in court on tuesday,Â i still don't even understand what all this means other than the fact that i'm not allowed to see my son who is already in extreme emotional distress, and i am feeling completely overwhelmed, threatened and harassed. My child and I are paying dearly for me trying to get him help based on what the pediatrician told us to do, the lying and manipulations are what started my son on this behavioral issue and the neglect he has been enduring for years I still can't wrap my head around why no one in Buncombe county will help us when with all the records i have shows very clear patterns of medical neglect, neglect, emotional and psychological abuse towards myself and my son no, the phone was cut off i did send an email to liz at pishah informing her of whatÂ happened but i am so utterly confused and because this person has a lawyer and is making false allegations again against me and totally lied on the stand my son needs help like immediately and i am having severe panic attacks becauseÂ of this situation, I am gravely concerned about my son's emotional distress as Ken did admit he gave the hospital staff my wrong phone number so they did not speak with me or have access to his 3 prior psych evauls, and the current referral for nauropsychÂ (autism testing) and psychiatrist and psychologist referalls that Ken denied 3 times, He Also tell our son that having ADD is bad and having Autism is bad and he doesn't have ADD anyway i'm just manipulating him into thinking he does, also the girlfriend joy wilson says this to my child. The school where he attends was given a copy of the first evaulation when he was in kindergarten and I did ask them how i would file or get assistance with an lep/504 plan since it's a public charter school but they don't follow the same rules as buncombe county schools,Â His dad asked asked wouldn't the school notice signs, and I told him he had been put several times in silent lunch, and silent recess for talking to much and they are still refusing to work with him on the level he is on besides the fact that his math skills which fahren used to excel in, his social skills and his communication skills have had a dramatic regression. He still has fine motor skills problems ie:. he can't tie his shoes, he has problems with buttoning shirts, he has problems with zippers... He also had done several pictures at the school that all say hug me, or hug me please.. His dad now filing this ex parte whatever would only allow supervised visits of some kind and a hearing not until october,Â i'm gavelly concerned for my son's emotional safety as he did threaten to commit suicide to his dad 2 days after his dad signed him out of the hospital and his dad said it was a temper tantrum. It's been an ongoing problem of severe parental alienation, emotional and psychological abuse and i'm terrified to talk to anyone and so is my son. The counselor ryan zelov he had been seeing at the school last year is no longer there but when i had a conversation with him on the phone and told him about the hospital and the threats he told his dad Ryan told me he was also concerned about Fahrens physical safety at his dad's house both because of things my son had mentioned and his impusivity. MY step-mom who i had not spoken with since 2004 due to her emotionally abusive behavior towards my dad while he was dying I allowed my son to meet over christmas because he asked to meet her,Â she is the one that causedd this whole problem and she lives in ohio, she has shown some concerning behavior that she is suffering from some type of early onset dementia, and i have all the texts with her, as well as the one i sent ken on 8-5 when i was even told there was an issue,Â I seriously don't know where to turn here because Ken stole money from me and i don't have $5,000 for an attorney and me trying to represent myself in court is a mess but how can i protect us?Â

i have one more copy of the longer court thing I was given on Tuesday I had to scan with my phone but my kid needs help and instead of getting it we're both being punished, i know he is beating himself up because he doesn't even have anyone to listen to him or that knows what's going on and it's also very troubling how much inaccurate and actually libelous statements Ken's lawyer has been making. I have one more copy i have to upload, ,but this whole thing and him playing all the games of keep away and changing the rules last minute etc have cost me so much time and money and medical problems, i have an appt rescheduled with a neurologist on the day that I guess there is a mediation for custody which I don't even understand. I know he's going to try to have me declared as an unfit parent when i am in reality the only one that provides a routine structure, love and affection, positive reinforcement, the availability and the want to have him in activities he is interested in, an interest in his schoolwork, and the ability to understand that he needs more than just a regular counselor he has been diagnosed with conditions. Ken always claims he doesn't recall or acts confused i suppose that's because his continual substance abuse, but i have records of his refusal to medicatateÂ our child properly and health issues resulting and the behavior stuff he was well aware of since preschool. We seriously need a lawyer to actually represent us in court because I got discriminatory remarks made to me by the baliff after court on tuesday.Â

Iâ€™m so sorry to hear all this. If you request a continuance, Iâ€™m sure the court would understand since you were just served on Saturday. Since family court has the file, maybe the clerk or someone there can make you a copy of the custody order before you leave? Were you able to talk with Parris Booker from Pisgah Legal Services?

i'm confused as heck! My son's dr's office was able to pull up the file to see the custody part, so couldn't understand whatÂ is happening and yet again why I can get zero help for us in this county. he did file an ex parte custody and was granted it but the lying lawyer he has stated my residence was haywood county, i have been in buncombe for one year now... There is a continuation of 8/4/2022 ex parte tomorrow morning, it arrived in the mail on saturday, I was neverÂ served with the first one, and i couldn't get any answers I haven't seen my kid since 7-24 and this pattern of abuse and continual harassment, lies and no assistance from anywhere. I have zero time to prepare, zero assistance and again as a disabled mom trying to advocate for her disabled child that is being abused by this man continuously and i'm going to have a serious anxiety/panic attack tomorrow. I still have no idea what that custody order that everyone else has access to me say but i'm sure ken has been in violation multitudes of it. I can't keep doing this, my kid needs help and treatment immeditelyÂ and literally no oe will help or knows the answeÂ or can steer me the way.Â

i'm terrified, i now my kid is terrified and also beating himself up, and why would they need a continuance.... just to keep him away from his mom and keep him quiet. He's too scared to talk, so am i

Hey Dawn,

I went to civil records to make a copy of your custody agreement, but the file has been checked out. I also checked to see if Ken filed a protective order last Friday, and I donâ€™t see any file with his name on it. My assumption is that the deputies were trying to serve you with something related to family court. Have you called them yet?
