Hi Esther,Â

This is the person I mentionedÂ on the phone who is in a custody dispute with her husband. It's a big mess. I know any legal help she couldÂ get would be appreciated.Â

Hi Brownie, thanks for the response i spoke with Jocelyn at the VW law firm and explained everything that is going on. This is now approaching in my opinion a serious emergency, the abuser that got the ex-parte order is refusing to allow me to talk to my son I've talked to him once for 10 mins since 7/24/2022.... the lawyer you were referring to is out of town and they mentioned doing a consultation with me but not until next tuesday my kid needs out of there and that school now... The school here in Black Mountain started 8/29/2022, also when i went to court on 8/8/2022 and got served with papers with the wrong addressÂ and tried with my ADD anxietyÂ and Panic disorderÂ I got some points across however at the end of the court the judge said the next day and I was packing up my papers I did ask multiple times and stated that I could not hear what date the judge had said and the baliff was extremely rude and told me court was over and get my stuff and shut up and get out of courtroom.. i did try to call 3 times the court clerk listed on google websites and got no answer or answering machine.. Also my service is a tad sketchy out in black mountain so when i spoke with jocelyn, we got disconnected she left me a vm, that i was going to be Charged $250 for consultation, not sure if that's the case or not. The lawyer you guys mentioned is out of town and I'd be talking with a different lawyer that works closely with Dalia, but I am having panic attacks everyday and worried for my son. my allergies have started so I know my sons have as well and my son gets seriously ill every year which could be prevented if his dad gave him the exact same medicine i take.Â Also, I got something from DSS in the mail and I am terrified i'm going to looseÂ any benefits I do have because of this custody situation. Please speak wthÂ Esther today if you can or forward this and have someone call me, I am freaking out.

Dawn,Â

Hi. This is Brownie Newman from the County Commission. I spoke with the Mayor of Asheville Esther Manheimer about your situation and your need for an attorneyÂ to help represent you. I explained that you do not have the funds to hire an attorney. I wantedÂ to get Esther's ideas because she is an attorney herself. She suggested contacting an attorney in her firm named Dalia Ledesma. Dalia practices family law and Esther said she is sometimes able to help people in these situations. Esther said she can't promise anything but suggested you reach out to Dalia to ask if you could speak with her about the situation with your child.Â

Here is a link to the website that has Dalia's phone number and emailÂ <https://www.vwlawfirm.com/dalia-r-ledesma/>.Â

In case the link doesn't work, her phone number isÂ (828) 844-7169. Her email isÂ dledesma@vwlawfirm.comÂ

You can let them know that Esther Manheimer suggested you reach out to her.Â

Best,Â

no, the phone was cut off i did send an email to liz at pishah informing her of whatÂ happened but i am so utterly confused and because this person has a lawyer and is making false allegations again against me and totally lied on the stand my son needs help like immediately and i am having severe panic attacks becauseÂ of this situation, I am gravely concerned about my son's emotional distress as Ken did admit he gave the hospital staff my wrong phone number so they did not speak with me or have access to his 3 prior psych evals, and the current referral for neuropsych (autism testing) and psychiatrist and psychologist referrals that Ken denied 3 times, He Also tell our son that having ADD is bad and having Autism is bad and he doesn't have ADD anyway i'm just manipulating him into thinking he does, also the girlfriend joy wilson says this to my child. The school where he attends was given a copy of the first evaluation when he was in kindergarten and I did ask them how i would file or get assistance with an iep/504 plan since it's a public charter school but they don't follow the same rules as buncombe county schools, His dad asked wouldn't the school notice signs, and I told him he had been put several times in silent lunch, and silent recess for talking too much and they are still refusing to work with him on the level he is on besides the fact that his math skills which fahren used to excel in, his social skills and his communication skills have had a dramatic regression. He still has fine motor skills problems ie: he can't tie his shoes, he has problems with buttoning shirts, he has problems with zippers... He also had done several pictures at the school that all say hug me, or hug me please.. His dad now filing this ex parte whatever would only allow supervised visits of some kind and a hearing not until october, i'm greatly concerned for my son's emotional safety as he did threaten to commit suicide to his dad 2 days after his dad signed him out of the hospital and his dad said it was a temper tantrum. It's been an ongoing problem of severe parental alienation, emotional and psychological abuse and i'm terrified to talk to anyone and so is my son. The counselor ryan zelov he had been seeing at the school last year is no longer there but when i had a conversation with him on the phone and told him about the hospital and the threats he told his dad Ryan told me he was also concerned about Fahrens physical safety at his dad's house both because of things my son had mentioned and his impulsivity. MY step-mom who i had not spoken with since 2004 due to her emotionally abusive behavior towards my dad while he was dying I allowed my son to meet over christmas because he asked to meet her, she is the one that caused this whole problem and she lives in ohio, she has shown some concerning behavior that she is suffering from some type of early onset dementia, and i have all the texts with her, as well as the one i sent ken on 8-5 when i was even told there was an issue, I seriously don't know where to turn here because Ken stole money from me and i don't have $5,000 for an attorney and me trying to represent myself in court is a mess but how can i protect us?

i have one more copy of the longer court thing I was given on Tuesday I had to scan with my phone but my kid needs help and instead of getting it we're both being punished, i know he is beating himself up because he doesn't even have anyone to listen to him or that knows what's going on and it's also very troubling how much inaccurate and actually libelous statements Ken's lawyer has been making. I have one more copy i have to upload, but this whole thing and him playing all the games of keep away and changing the rules last minute etc have cost me so much time and money and medical problems, i have an appt rescheduled with a neurologist on the day that I guess there is a mediation for custody which I don't even understand. I know he's going to try to have me declared as an unfit parent when i am in reality the only one that provides a routine structure, love and affection, positive reinforcement, the availability and the want to have him in activities he is interested in, an interest in his schoolwork, and the ability to understand that he needs more than just a regular counselor he has been diagnosed with conditions. Ken always claims he doesn't recall or acts confused i suppose that's because his continual substance abuse, but i have records of his refusal to medicate our child properly and health issues resulting and the behavior stuff he was well aware of since preschool. We seriously need a lawyer to actually represent us in court because I got discriminatory remarks made to me by the bailiff after court on tuesday.

Dawn,

Â

I'm so sorry to hear all this. If you request a continuance, I'm sure the court would understand since you were just served on Saturday. Since family court has the file, maybe the clerk or someone there can make you a copy of the custody order before you leave? Were you able to talk with Parris Booker from Pisgah Legal Services?

i'm confused as heck! My son's dr's office was able to pull up the file to see the custody part, so couldn't understand whatÂ is happening and yet again why I can get zero help for us in this county. he did file an ex parte custody and was granted it but the lying lawyer he has stated my residence was haywood county, i have been in buncombe for one year now... There is a continuation of 8/4/2022 ex parte tomorrow morning, it arrived in the mail on saturday, I was neverÂ served with the first one, and i couldn't get any answers I haven't seen my kid since 7-24 and this pattern of abuse and continual harassment, lies and no assistance from anywhere. I have zero time to prepare, zero assistance and again as a disabled mom trying to advocate for her disabled child that is being abused by this man continuously and i'm going to have a serious anxiety/panic attack tomorrow. I still have no idea what that custody order that everyone else has access to me say but i'm sure ken has been in violation multitudes of it. I can't keep doing this, my kid needs help and treatment immediatelyÂ and literally no oe will help or knows the answeÂ or can steer me the way.Â

i'm terrified, i now my kid is terrified and also beating himself up, and why would they need a continuance.... just to keep him away from his mom and keep him quiet. He's too scared to talk, so am i

Hey Dawn,

Â

I went to civil records to make a copy of your custody agreement, but the file has been checked out. I also checked to see if Ken filed a protective order last Friday, and I donâ€™t see any file with his name on it. My assumption is that the deputies were trying to serve you with something related to family court. Have you called them yet?
