SAVE THE DATES: 11/2, 11/9, 11/16 | 1:00 PM CT

As agencies are under increased pressure to solve cases within shorter timelines, it's essential to kickstart the investigative process as quickly as possible. Your public safety teams need to learn to turn data into intelligence to uncover insights, improve resource planning, and close cases quicker.

Join us November 2nd to see how tools like Anonymous Tipping and Camera Registration work together seamlessly to jumpstart and accelerate investigations. See a live demonstration that will give you new insights into how community software and evidence solutions can save time and build transparency.

Be prepared to put your thinking cap on! We'll be asking you to answer clues and piece together information to help solve our simulated crime. Are you up for the challenge?
