Subject: Gully Street Additional Information

I'm sending you the deeds that we found, and a plat showing how the two parcels were originally marked before combined. On a very old plat we have in the office, these two are marked "Town Pump Station."

Is there anything in particular I need to concentrate on now that we have proof of ownership? I believe the mayor mentioned there was a house on the property now? Do we know if there are people living there? Do we want an eviction if so?

Sincerely,
Lora Baker
