Subject : Re: MNSA PTO presentation time

Thanks Sarah!

No problem at all, and I hope youâ€™re on the mend!â€

I totally agree that presenting at the first open comment session makes the most sense. I didnâ€™t even realize that was an option, so many thanks to everyone on the board for considering it. Please know that MNSA community is grateful for your flexibility!

Many thanks,
Sarah

Dejar Sarah:

I am so so sorry that I didnâ€™t see your email earlier this week. I was sick most of the week and just started surfacing around Thursday.â€

Even if I had seen your request earlier, I would have nearly the same answer as Amyâ€™s. Maggie is sharing a wealth of information with the board and the public at tomorrowâ€™s meeting, and we will be voting on the SB49 policies as well on a possible raise in our teacher supplement. The PTOâ€™s presentation probably will be better served at a later date, when there are not so many competing interests - perhaps as Amy suggested.â€

I suggest we check in after tomorrow nightâ€™s meeting and see when might be best to present to the board.

Again, I am sorry I didnâ€™t see your message earlier; Amy, thank you so much for being on top of this and covering for me!

That would be wonderful - thank you so much for that idea! Would you let me know what George and Maggie say and Iâ€™ll plan accordingly?

Many thanks for the accommodation - we really appreciate it!

Best,
Sarah

Hi, Sarah! Tomorrowâ€™s agenda has already been released and might be difficult to change now. I also think that if MNSA PTO wants to give a presentation, which is welcome, we might need to extend the invitation to AMSâ€™s PTO to do the same. I will confer with Maggie and George, but I am wondering about inviting your PTO to do that at the first public comment session related to the possible reconfiguration of the middle schools. Would that be satisfactory? We will not be voting on anything related to that question before March.

Let me know what you think about that suggestion.

Thank you!

Amy

Hello ACS board,

I have been reaching out to Mr. Sieburg about securing a spot on the agenda for this Mondayâ€™s board meeting, but I have yet to hear back. So Iâ€™m wondering if someone else on the board could grant this? The MNSA PTO would like to make a short presentation at tomorrowâ€™s meeting.

Thanks so much,
Sarah Armstrong
